

Symphony of the Soil

PUBLIC SCREENING GUIDE: SYMPHONY OF THE SOIL PROJECT

WHO TO INVITE

We highly suggest that you invite relevant local speakers to your screening in order to both bolster the program of the event and bring the message of the film 'home' to what is happening in your community. Below are a sample list of persons who may complement the film well and who, when placed opposite, may provide ample room for debate and discussion.

- ★ Soil Scientists
- ★ Farmers
- ★ Local Food Advocates
- ★ Transition Town Members
- ★ Farmers Market Managers
- ★ NRCS (Natural Resource Conservation Service) Employees
- ★ Land Grant University Administration
- ★ USDA Employees
- ★ Local University Personell (Farm Manager, Field Research Station Manager, Faculty)
- ★ Municipal Waste Facility Manager
- ★ Community Compost Program Manager
- ★ Elected City Leaders
- ★ Artists who work with Soil or other Natural Resources
- ★ Local Filmmakers
- ★ Local Authors
- ★ Chefs
- ★ Active Citizens involved in relevant civic matters (Conservation Measures etc)
- ★ Non Profit Directors who deal with Food, Farming, Natural Resources, Climate Change
- ★ City Administrators who deal with Food, Farming, Natural Resources, Climate Change
- ★ Local Food Businesses (i.e. Winemakers, Local Food Processors, Retail Operations)
- ★ Directors of Relevant City Projects (i.e. Beginner Farmer Incubators)
- ★ Lastly, of course, the Filmmakers themselves! Please contact our office for details.